

CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI) VIDEO DOCUMENTATION OF TWO DOCUMENTARIES

Documentary Themes

• Conversion of Forest Village into Revenue Village

This documentary will chronicle the transition of a forest village into a revenue village, highlighting the legal, administrative, and socio-political processes involved, and its impact on the community's access to rights, services, and entitlements.

• Cultural Aspects of the Juanga PVTG

This film will explore the rich and unique cultural heritage of the Juanga Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Group (PVTG), focusing on their traditions, festivals, indigenous knowledge systems, and relationship with forest.

Scope of Work

- Concept development in consultation with Vasundhara team.
- Script writing, storyboarding, and field-based video shoots.
- Interviews with community members, local leaders, and stakeholders.
- Video editing, subtitling (in English and Odia), voice-over, background score, and final production.
- Deliverables include:

Two documentary films (8-12 minutes each, Full HD)
Short teasers for social media promotion (30-60 seconds)

Eligibility Criteria

- Prior experience in documentary filmmaking, particularly on social, tribal, or environmental issues.
- Willingness to travel and shoot in remote rural locations in Odisha.
- Proficiency in Odia or experience working with tribal communities is an advantage.

Vasundhara, a research and policy advocacy organization based in Odisha, invites Expressions of Interest (EOIs) from experienced individuals, creative agencies, or production houses for video documentation of two short documentaries focused on tribal communities and forest governance.
